Welcome

This semester, you will train using calisthenics, step activities and body weight exercises with cardio and strength training. This class is designed to incorporate different exercises to develop lifelong fitness activities. You will get your heart beating; you will burn fat as well as muscle toning while alternating moderately-paced moves with segments of more intense athletic moves. Whether you are new to exercise or want to take your workouts to the next level, Body Conditioning can help you reach your goals!

Course Description:

This course uses a variety of exercises to help the student achieve their physical fitness goal. Students will establish a workout program they can use for the rest of their lives. Exercises are drawn from a number of different sources such as yoga, weight training and resistance training.

College Policies:

Academic Integrity (Plagiarism)

In accordance with code 9803.28, academic dishonesty is prohibited and will not be tolerated in this class. Violations of academic integrity include, but are not limited to, the following actions: cheating on an exam, plagiarism, working together on an assignment, paper or project when the instructor has specifically stated students should not do so, submitting the same term paper to more than one instructor, or allowing another individual to assume one's identity for the purpose of enhancing one's grade. Academic dishonesty of any type, such as cheating or knowingly furnishing false information, by a student provides grounds for disciplinary action by the instructor or college. In written work, no material may be copied from another without proper quotation marks, footnotes, or appropriate documentation.

- o Plagiarism will result in a zero for the assignment, possible dismissal from the class and disciplinary action from the college. You will not receive credit for any essay missing previous drafts, citations and/or a Works Cited page.

Student Conduct

According to code 9803.15, disruption of classes or college activities is prohibited and will not be tolerated. Refer to the catalog and the Standards of Student Conduct in the Schedule of Classes for more information.

Recording Devices

State law in California prohibits the use of any electronic listening or recording device in a classroom without prior consent of the instructor and college administration. Any student who needs to use electronic aids must secure the consent of the instructor. If the instructor agrees to the request, a notice of consent must be forwarded to the Vice President of Academic Affairs for approval (WLAC College Catalog).
