Assignments:

There will be a variety of assignments for the class this semester to accommodate different learning styles. All assignments must be well written, and they will be graded on their composition as well as on their content. Etudes technology will be integrated into this course. All assignments must be turn in via Etudes and hand delivered at the instructor's request. Follow the directions for logging into Etudes.

Therefore, you will need access to a computer with Internet service. Computers are available in the campus library (HLRC), college computer labs, with connections to the Internet, which are reasonably accessible and available on campus. Assignment should created and submitted as an attachment in one of the following: Microsoft word document, Pages, or Microsoft PowerPoint presentation.

Participation: Each student has the responsibility to participate each and every class discussion. The instructor takes no responsibility for conveying information to students who are not in attendance or participating. Field trips may be required. Note the following:

- Ensuring all assignments will be turned into the instructor on time.
- Completing weekly reading assignments.
- Completing weekly discussion questions daily
- Completing other assignments as assigned.
- Completing weekly quizzes

Assignments:

1. State assignment 50 points

Research one California State law enforcement agencies and develop a Powerpoint presentation on the mission and functions of each agency. Your presentation should include a 5- to 10-slide Microsoft® PowerPoint® presentation that addresses the agency's creation and history, charter, current resources and issues, and future challenges, major activities and careers. Please use the note section of the PPT to help explain your slides.

2. Federal assignment 50 points : Research one federal law enforcement agencies and develop a PowerPoint presentation on the mission and functions of the agency. Your presentation should include a 5- to 10-slide Microsoft® PowerPoint® presentation that addresses the agency's creation and history, charter, current resources and issues, and future challenges, major activities and careers. Please use the note section of the PPT to help explain your slides.

3. Interview 45 points

Interview a criminal justice professional (deputy sheriff, police officers, judge, prosecutor, defense attorney, probation officer) Develop six (6) questions on their of discretion, and how they interact with other criminal justice professionals. Write a two paragraph reflection on the outcome of the interview. Ask follow up questions if necessary to receive a substantive response from the person you are interviewing. College level work must be submitted.

4. Station Visit 65 points

Visit your local police / sheriff's department. In a PowerPoint presentation 10 or more slides include a photo at the station, and information from the community meeting.

- Crime data
- Community programs
- Station captain
- Community Relations officer

- Youth programs
- Questions related to problems in your community
- etc.

5. Due process 25 points: In PowerPoint presentation identify all the due process rights (amendments) related to the criminal justice system. Prepare a PowerPoint presentation listing the due process rights in numerical order.

Assigned Reading: Students will be expected to read each of the reading assignments assigned per week. Therefore, class discussions will not necessarily cover all materials in the book or some chapters at all, however you are responsible for ALL assigned readings whether discussed in class or not.

Exams: Each quiz and exam is made up of questions taken from the textbook. These exams provide opportunities for students to show their individual mastery of the material. Online exams will be available via Etudes and once you start an exam you will have 10 minutes to complete.

Group Project: The purpose of this project is to develop problem solving and decision making skills in interpersonal contexts. Field trips maybe required. Group presentation will be presented to the entire class and each group member must be present.

Weekly Discussion: Weekly discussion assignments must be posted in the discussion. Will not accept via email. Discussions must be posted in the correct thread i.e., week one discussion question in week one discussion classroom thread in order to be scored. Postings placed in the wrong discussion room thread will not be graded and will not be scored. No Late discussion postings after due date and times. Your grade will be based on your substantive context and collaboration with the class in the discussion. You must respond to the discussion question and two or more of your classmates posting per discussion question to receive full credit. Posting all on the same day does not meet the participation requirements.

Portfolio: End of course reflection paper and cumulative assignments.

Grading: Each assignment, quiz, exam or project will have a point count so you will know how it adds to your final grade. Check the grade book for your points. In order to calculate your grade, add up the total points you receive and divide that by total points possible.

A=100-90%

B= 89-80%

C= 79-70%

D= 69-60%

F= 59- 0%

Make-up Policy: No assignment(s) will be accepted after the indicated due date and time. Make sure you check the website for due dates of assignments. Therefore, time management is very important.

Plagiarism: Written work that you hand in is assumed to be original unless your source material is documented appropriately as per MLA or APA. Using the ideas or words of another person, even a peer, or a web site, as if it were your own, is plagiarism. Cheating and plagiarism are serious academic offenses. Students should read the section on cheating and plagiarism. A student who is dishonest in this respect will be excluded from the course.

Violations of Academic Integrity include, but are not limited to the following actions: cheating on an exam, plagiarism, working together on an assignment, paper or project when the instructor has specifically stated students should not do so, submitting the same term paper to more than one instructor, or allowing another individual to assume one's identity for the purpose of enhancing one's grade. For more information on the Standards of Student Conduct refer to the college catalog available in hardcopy and online at www.wlac.edu.

Extra Credit (EC): Class extra credit will be at the discretion of the instructor based on class assessments and opportunity during the term.
