1. Describe and to interpret the systemic framework for their study and analysis of American Government.
2. Identify the major components of American Political Culture.
3. Distinguish the complexities of American Government both in form and function on the state and local levels.
4. Critically analyze political institutions, systems, processes, events and constitutional principles in order to exercise one's rights and to defend civil liberties.
5. Take an informed position on a political issue, candidate or situation and support your position with objective, logical, effective debate and discussion.
6. Seek out and engage in civic opportunities that broaden perspectives and increase one's responsibility to family and community

CLASSROOM POLICIES:

1. Attending all scheduled class meetings is mandatory and staying the entire class period
2. If you have a planned absents and or an unplanned absents let me know via e mail
3. Cheating on examinations will result in failure of the examination
4. Be on time to class and be ready to learn
5. Un excused absences will result in a lowered grade
6. Keep up your reading!

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY POLICY:

The syllabi should reference the LACCD student code of conduct as it relates to student dishonesty (Board Rule 9803.28) as follows: "Violations of academic integrity of any type by a student provides grounds for disciplinary action by the instructor or college. Violations of Academic Integrity include, but are not limited to, the following actions: cheating on an exam, plagiarism, working together on an assignment, paper or project when the instructor has specifically stated students should not do so, submitting the same term paper to more than one instructor, or allowing another individual to assume one's identity for the purpose of enhancing one's grade. For more information on the Standards of Student Conduct refer to the college catalog available in hardcopy and online at www.lattc.edu."

DIABLED STUDENTS PROGRAM & SERVICES:

Students should also contact the Disabled Student Programs & Services (DSPS) center located in Student Services Building (SSB 320) or call (310) 287-4450. If you require specific services you must make an appointment and receive a DSPS form. You will then bring me the receipt form listing what requirements are needed

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS:

Written assignments will be submitted both in hard copy and electronically. Format will be specified on the handout. All electronic documents will be submitted in MS Word 2007 or 2010. You can also submit in PDF format. Other attachments will not be accepted. If I cannot open your attachments, I will inform you. It is your responsibility to resubmit the document in the above three methods.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Students are expected to attend every class meeting, to arrive on time and stay throughout the class period. Students may be dropped from class for excessive tardiness, for failure to attend class the first day or during the entire first week of the class, or if the total number or absences exceed the twice the number or hours the class meets per week, missed/makeup examinations and assignments and late assignments/extensions.

1. Students should contact the instructor when they are absent for emergency reasons
2. Come to class on time since it disrupts the class tempo and is not fair to your fellow students
3. Students are responsible for dropping a class that they stop attending. If the class is not dropped, the student may receive an "F" in the class and be responsible for enrollment fee.

GRADING AND TEST POLICIES:

There will be 4 (four) exams given in this class. The examinations will include two examinations, a midterm examination and the final examination. Grading will be done on a straight percentage value; >90% = A, >80% = B, >70% = C, >60% = D, >59% and below = F.

Test 1 = 100 Midterm = 100 Test 2 = 100 Final Examination = 150 (the final examination is cumulative)
 Research project = 50 for a total of 500 points possible. Student classroom participation is required in this class. Make up exams will be at my discretion.

NEW REPEAT POLICY EFFECTIVE SUMMER 2012:

Effective summer or 2013, the rules have changed for repeating courses. You may attempt a course only three (3) times (up to 3 W's or 3 D's or 3 F's or any combination of W's, D's and F's) "Ws" will count towards attempts at any one course. After three (3) attempts the state will not pay the college for a student to take the course. If a student drops by the "drop without a W date it is not counted against the 3 attempts to pass a class. If you think it is likely you will not pass a class, drop the class before the "W" penalty date.

FINAL EXAMINATION POLICY:

Final examinations are required of all classes and are required to be given within the designated final examination period.

- A two hour period is scheduled for each examination.
- Final Examinations must be held on the DAY AND TIME SCHEDULED and in the regularly assigned classroom.
- No course or student is exempt from final examinations. The final examinations will be held on the last on-campus meeting day of the class.
