Description There is no substitute for your own notes! Improve your planning and note-taking to save time and improve grades.
This class includes skills for better class participation.
The class combines lecture, discussion and activities.
It is graded credit/no credit and is non degree applicable and non-transferable.

Outcomes a) Will become aware of and able to identify how lectures are organized
b) Will think critically and develop a personal system
c) Will understand and practice classroom participation skills that will lead to academic and career success

Topics for the 8 class meetings

1. Introduction ; Why take Notes
2. How are your classroom skills?
3. The 2 column Method
4. Cornell, mapping methods
5. Word economy; symbols for note-taking
6. Making ideas your own; paraphrasing and summarizing
7. How to edit notes; computer lab practice
8. Summary, review of final practice lecture.

Long term assignment: due 8th meeting. An organized 3 ring notebook with all practice notes and handouts included, fully completed.

Grading: Credit/ No credit. You will be evaluated on

1. Regular and on-time attendance
2. Appropriate classroom participation

3. Notebook organization and completion of all exercises

Attendance: This class meets only 8 times; you cannot learn if you are not in class...on time! 1 absence is allowed; 2 times late =1 absence. If you have 2 unexcused absences (other than emergency) and/or repeated inappropriate class participation, I will drop you from the roster so you can add another credit class.

Syllabus Changes: The class will follow the syllabus schedule as closely as possible. Unforeseen events may require minor modifications to the order of topics.

Standards of Talking; texting, passing messages, ringing phones, 1. Respect for others is the #1 requirement in this Student Conduct: class. getting up to answer phones/pagers in middle of class are all disruptive, rude behaviors that lead others to believe that you believe that no one else's time is as valuable as your own. In college, an instructor is not required to keep anyone in a class. College is a privilege, not a right.

2. Everyone needs to listen with respect to other's questions and comments. There will be no negative comments or laughter that shows disrespect for others.

No comment or question should be a reason for laughing at another person's expense. Comments should be polite and positive at all times.

This class is offered to help you to learn better, improve your grades and reach the goals in life that you have chosen, both in college and the world of work.

If you apply the above rules to your other classes and in your workplace...you are opening the door to success!!
