Prerequisite: English 101 with a grade of "C" or better.

Students are required to write critical essays about these literary forms, emphasizing critical thinking.

Course Learning Outcome

"At the end of the course, the successful student will be able to critically evaluate works of literature using literary terms and incorporate this knowledge into his or her own writing."

Student Learning Objectives

At the end of this course, the successful student will be able to...
1. "Evaluate works of literature critically, using literary terms, and incorporate this knowledge into his or her own writing."

2. Write college-level essays in which literary works are used as support for a thesis and there is an evident persuasive purpose.

3. Demonstrate an adequate understanding of the basic elements of story (theme, plot, conflict, setting, character), comparative literature, and different literary genres.

Institutional Course Outcomes

English 102 will also help students meet these Institutional Student Learning Outcomes:

A. "Critical Thinking: Analyze problems by differentiating fact from opinions, using evidence, and using sound reasoning to specify multiple solutions and their consequences." In essays and class discussions, analyze arguments.

B. "Communication: Effectively communicate thought in a well-organized manner to persuade, inform, and convey ideas in academic, work, family and community settings.” In writings and class discussions, share ideas about what makes an argument effective.

G. "Cultural Diversity: respectfully engage with other cultures in an effort to understand them." In writings and class discussion, analyze literature from a multi-cultural perspective.

H. "Ethics: practice and demonstrate standards of personal and professional integrity, honesty and fairness; apply ethical principles in submission of all college work." Submit writings in which words other than your own are documented in MLA format.

I. "Aesthetics: Use multiple modes of inquiry and approaches to experience and to engage with the art and nature; develop and express personal creative visions throughout all aspects of one's life." In writings and discussions, demonstrate recognition of literature as art—especially works of non-fiction.

ANNE SEXTON (1928-1974)

“Music Swims Back to Me” (1957)

Wait Mister. Which way is home?

They turned the light out and the dark is moving in the corner.

There are no sign posts in this room,

four ladies, over eighty,
in diapers every one of them.

La la la, Oh music swims back to me and I can feel the tune they played the night they left me in this private institution on a hill.

Imagine it. A radio playing and everyone here was crazy.
I liked it and danced in a circle.
Music pours over the sense and in a funny way
music sees more than I.
I mean it remembers better;
remembers the first night here.
It was the strangled cold of November;
even the stars were strapped in the sky and that moon too bright forking through the bars to stick me with a singing in the head.
I have forgotten all the rest.

They lock me in this chair at eight a.m.
and there are no signs to tell the way,
just the radio beating to itself and the song that remembers more than I. Oh, la la la, this music swims back to me.
The night I came I danced a circle and was not afraid.
Mister?

W.H. AUDEN (1907-1973)

Stop All the Clocks (Funeral Blues) (1938)

Stop all the clocks, cut off the telephone,
Prevent the dog from barking with a juicy bone,
Silence the pianos and with muffled drum
Bring out the coffin, let the mourners come.

Let aeroplanes circle moaning overhead
Scribbling on the sky the message He Is Dead,
Put crepe bows round the white necks of the public doves,
Let the traffic policemen wear black cotton gloves.

He was my North, my South, my East and West,
My working week and my Sunday rest,
My noon, my midnight, my talk, my song;
I thought that love would last for ever: I was wrong.

The stars are not wanted now: put out every one;
Pack up the moon and dismantle the sun;
Pour away the ocean and sweep up the wood.
For nothing now can ever come to any good.

BOB DYLAN (1941–?)

“It’s All Over Now, Baby Blue” (1965)

You must leave now, take what you need, you think will last
But whatever you wish to keep, you better grab it fast
Yonder stands your orphan with his gun
Crying like a fire in the sun
Look out the saints are comin’ through
And it’s all over now, Baby Blue

The highway is for gamblers, better use your sense
Take what you have gathered from coincidence
The empty-handed painter from your streets
Is drawing crazy patterns on your sheets
This sky, too, is folding under you
And it’s all over now, Baby Blue

All your seasick sailors, they are rowing home
All your reindeer armies, are all going home
The lover who just walked out your door
Has taken all his blankets from the floor
The carpet, too, is moving under you
And it’s all over now, Baby Blue

Leave your stepping stones behind, something calls for you Forget the dead you’ve left, they will not follow you
The vagabond who’s rapping at your door
Is standing in the clothes that you once wore Strike another match, go start anew
And it’s all over now, Baby Blue

my heart) i am never without it (anywhere i go you go, my dear; and whatever is done by only me is your doing, my darling)

i fear

no fate (for you are my fate, my sweet) i want no world (for beautiful you are my world, my true) and it's you are whatever a moon has always meant and whatever a sun will always sing is you here is the deepest secret nobody knows (here is the root of the root and the bud of the bud and the sky of the sky of a tree called life; which grows higher than soul can hope or mind can hide) and this is the wonder that's keeping the stars apart

“Harlem” [Dream Deferred]

What happens to a dream deferred?

Does it dry up
like a raisin in the sun?
Or fester like a sore—
And then run?
Does it stink like rotten meat?
Or crust and sugar over—like a syrupy sweet?

Maybe it just sags
like a heavy load.

Or does it explode?

“A Good Man Is Hard to Find” (1953)

B.

ANNE SEXTON (1928-1974)

“The Evil Seekers” (1974)
We are born with luck which is to say with gold in our mouth.
As new and smooth as a grape,
as pure as a pond in Alaska,
as good as the stem of a green bean—
we are born and that ought to be enough, we ought to be able to carry on from that but one must learn about evil, learn what is subhuman,
learn how the blood pops out like a scream,
one must see the night before one can realize the day, one must listen hard to the animal within,
one must walk like a sleepwalker
on the edge of a roof, one must throw some part of her body into the devil’s mouth.
Odd stuff, you’d say.
But I’d say
you must die a little,
have a book of matches go off in your hand,
see your best friend copying your exam, visit an Indian reservation and see their plastic feathers,
the dead dream.
One must be a prisoner just once to hear the lock twist into his gut.
After all that one is free to grasp at the trees, the stones,
the sky, the birds that make sense out of air.
But even in a telephone booth evil can seep out of the receiver and we must cover it with a mattress, and then tear it from its roots and bury it, bury it.

Grading:

1. Two Weekly Journals, Twice a Week: 6 at 8 points each, 48 points total

2. Papers: 2 @ 20 points each, 40 points total

3. Peer Evaluations: 2 @ 6 points each, 12 points total Total Points: 100

Grading Scale

A = 100 - 90 points
B = 89 - 80 points
C = 79 - 70 points
D = 69 - 60 points
F = 59 - 0 points

NOTE: There are no plus (+) or minus (-) grades in the LACCD system. For this reason, I will offer three (3) extra credit points at the end of the semester so that students may change grades that would be a B+, C+ and D+ into an A, B, and C. However... fulfillment of extra credit assignments does not guarantee that extra credit will be awarded; all extra credit assignments must be of superior quality.

Changes to Syllabus

I may make changes to the Syllabus, if they seem appropriate and/or necessary. If I do, then I’ll announce the changes on the home page, on the right side of the screen, under "Announcements," and write the changes on the whiteboard in class. It is your responsibility to become aware of these changes.

Learning Disabilities

If you have a learning disability (LD), then you learn things differently than most students do-and you usually learn at a different speed. In other words, you "process" information differently. For this reason, you might need more time to complete an assignment. An LD is not a shameful thing-LOTS of intelligent people have LD’s. You are not stupid if you have an LD! Let me know immediately if you have an LD-or think that you might, okay? We’ll need to make sure that DSP&S documents your LD; if it’s not documented, then I will not be able to give you additional time to complete assignments.

Academic Integrity Policy (Plagiarism)

In most English classes, cheating occurs in two ways. First, a student presents another person’s words or ideas (or other people’s words and ideas) as his or her own, quoting or paraphrasing that person (or people) without indicating that quoting or paraphrasing is occurring. Second, a student has someone else write his or her work. Every semester I seem to catch students cheating; I don’t enjoy catching cheaters. Please do NOT cheat.

Students who cheat will be subject to all appropriate academic penalties: They will receive a failing grade on their assignment, and the Dean of Student Services will be notified. If an assignment seems too challenging for you, or if you have an emergency that stops you from completing an assignment, Private Message me. I’ll try my best to help you.
