At the Northridge Invitational hosted by Cal State Northridge this weekend, the Wildcat women posted the top time in the nation for a community college in the 4x400 meter relay at 3:51.80. Freshman Selina Collins and sophomores Keshawna Fisher, Reanna Davision and Dyneeca Adams finished the race in 2nd place to Southern Utah University defeating El Camino and UCLA, among others.

The 4x200m relay and the sprint medley relay also finished 2nd place overall on the women’s side. USC won both races.

The men’s squad was led by Johnathan Kelly who posted a time of 53.88 in the 400 hurdles, and Patrick Hunter who jumped 23'4" in the long jump. Those marks place them #2 and #3 respectively in the state of California in their respective events. The men’s 4x4 relay also posted the #3 mark in the state, and the #2 mark in the state in the 1600m sprint medley which was also the #2 time in school history.
