AWARD WINNING ARTIST

Synthia SAINT JAMES

To Appear at WLAC's Fall Fest Oct. 29

The public is invited to meet acclaimed artist Synthia SAINT JAMES, at the West Los Angeles College Fall Fest on Wednesday, October 29 from 10:00 am – 1:00pm.

James, has won numerous international awards, prestigious commissions, and a audience that continues to grow for her vibrant celebrations of family, community, and the cultures of the world.

Her artwork appears on over 60 book covers (including books by Terry McMillan, Alice Walker and Iyanla Vanzant), in 17 children's books (three of which she wrote), on the first Kwanzaa stamp commissioned by the U.S. Postal Service, in architectural designs for public places, and in artwork commissioned by organizations, corporations, and individual collectors. She is also a popular keynote speaker.

WHAT IS FALL FEST?

WLAC's Fall Fest includes recruiters from over 25 law enforcement agencies providing career information and answering questions; and the sale of books, jewelry and arts & crafts. Proceeds support student scholarship funds.

From approximately 11:30am – 1:00pm, the POWER 106 van will make an appearance adding to the festivities.

WHEN: Wed, Oct 29 | 9:00am – 2:00pm

WHERE: WLAC near Admissions Building

ADMISSIONS & PARKING: Admissions is FREE. Meter parking available in Student Lot #5
