The last day to drop with a "W" is June 13, 2017.

XXII: ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Students are responsible for the honest completion and representation of their work, for the appropriate citation of sources, and for respect of others' academic endeavors. When there is evidence of cheating or plagiarism, the instructor may assign a failing grade, "F," or zero points to the examination or assignment in which the alleged cheating or plagiarism occurred. Before a substandard grade is used the instructor will provide the student with supporting documentation of the plagiarism or cheating charge. Instructors have the authority to use plagiarism detecting instruments such as "Turn It In" to detect academic dishonesty.

Forms of Behavior which Violate Academic Integrity

Cheating. Using any materials or devices or strategies which provide undue advantage on any exam, assignment, activity of other method of course assessment. This includes, but is not limited to, copying content from the Web, textbooks or other sources, buying content, reusing material produced in other courses, SCREENSHOTS, or utilizing any other system of inappropriate "help." Exams are to be measured by what YOU, as an individual, have learned.

Collaboration. Working together on projects, papers, exams, or other forms of assessment which are to be completed by the individual.

Plagiarism. Taking anyone else's work as your own. Presenting another's words, ideas, forms of expression, materials, materials, or labor without citation, referencing, and declaration that this material originated outside the student's work.

XXIII: STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

The West LA College faculty, staff, and administrators are dedicated to maintaining an optimal learning environment and will not tolerate any disruptive behavior in or outside the learning environment or any academic dishonesty. These standards apply to all students.

Disruptive, disrespectful, or obstructive behavior will be dealt with in accordance to the LACCD Standard of Student conduct. Disciplinary action can be taken if student behavior interferes with instruction. Please refer to the Schedule of Classes.
