BILL BUCHYNSKI

Language Arts Professor

Bill Buchynski has been teaching public speaking and communications since 1990; at West since 2002. He graduated from University of South Florida with a degree in Speech Communications and from UCLA with a Master of Fine Arts. He has also worked in radio as an announcer, music director and trainer of announcers. He knows what it means to be an effective communicator and is capable of instilling that knowledge in a relatively short period of time. He also produced and directed a world premiere production of "Flight 2009" at West which was one of his most rewarding challenges. He owes West a great deal of gratitude for that opportunity and when you graduate, you may hear Bill calling out your name! Go West!!!
