

FACULTY BIOGRAPHY

EVELYN LISKIN

Adjunct Assistant Professor of ESL

Evelyn Liskin graduated with a B.A. in Spanish from the University of Illinois (Champaign-Urbana) and an M.A. in Spanish from Southern Illinois University.

Prior to teaching at West, Evelyn taught full time at De Paul University in Chicago, California State University, Pepperdine University and part time at Glendale College. She has been a veteran adjunct instructor at West for the past twenty-four years, teaching a variety of courses in ESL.

Some of Evelyn's activities at West included serving on the Matriculation/Student Equity Advisory Committee, the Title III Grant Committee, "Strengthening Institutions Program," the ESL/Basic Skills Committee and the Academic Senate, representing adjunct faculty. Evelyn also coordinated biannual receptions for international and ESL students, chaired a campus-wide International Festival and organized and served as Faculty Advisor to the International Student Club. She currently teaches hybrid courses in ESL as an Adjunct Assistant Professor. West Los Angeles College honored Evelyn with an award for "Outstanding Leadership and Service to the Student Body."

Evelyn participates in, and volunteers as a committee member for, professional conferences such as the Los Angeles Regional and the California State CATESOL Conferences. (California Teachers of English to Speakers of Other Languages)

In addition to teaching, Evelyn was active in community service, which included eighteen years in the Scouting Movement. Evelyn received a number of awards from Boy Scouts of America, including a "Commissioner of the Year Award" and a "District Award of Merit."

Evelyn and her husband have two grown children. Their daughter is a psychiatrist and their son is a consultant in New Media and Communications.
