We benefit from our location in Los Angeles, a dynamic city that brings into sharp focus the issues of our time and provides an ideal context for study, research, creative work, and active engagement.

Los Angeles is a microcosm of the world — a place where students of different talents, nationalities, ethnicities, religious beliefs and socioeconomic backgrounds live, study, and work together every day.

From solving complex urban problems to producing entertainment that captivates, LA offers countless opportunities for living and learning.
